OUR HISTORY

"Who dares to teach must never cease to learn."

-John Cotton Dana

When you enter the doors of Technology High School, you get a glimpse into the history of Kean University.

1913

The structure that now houses Technology High School, designed by architects Guilbert and Betelle, was built. Shortly after the construction was completed, the Newark Normal School moved into this newly constructed building on Fourth Avenue and Broadway (originally called Bellview Avenue).

1934

The first graduating class was conferred with Bachelor of Science Degrees in Education in the fields of kindergarten-primary education, elementary education, fine arts, and industrial arts.

1954

Newark State Teachers College purchased 120 acres from the Kean family for its new campus.

1958

Newark State Teachers College held its final convocation in Newark.

1968

The State Department of Education received a grant from the Economic Development Administration to build an addition to the 187 Broadway structure on a share-cost basis to house the school named COED.

1974

COED opens. COED fashioned its vocational program after the successful program offered to adults by Manpower Inc., in the academic part of what is now Technology High School. COED offered vocational programs, some of which are still offered today.

1996

Technology High School Opens.

2009

US News & World Report lists Technology High School as one of the best high schools in New Jersey.

Dear Class of 2021,

Four short years ago, you walked through the doors of this institution, wide-eyed and excited. You were all full of potential. As your principal, I promised to ensure that we would do everything humanly possible to make sure that you were provided with the tools necessary to fulfill that potential. I am incredibly proud to say that we have both succeeded.

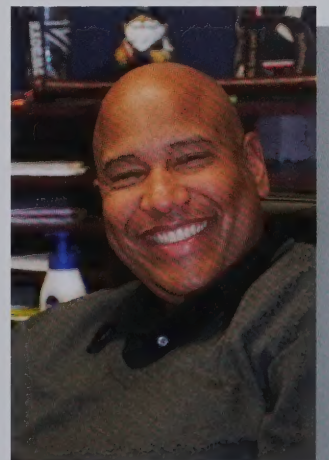

COVID-19 has made an impact on the lives of every person in the world. Our lives were turned inside out, and high school as we knew was changed--maybe forever. No one was impacted more than the class of 2021. Due to your strength, passion, and resilience, you rose to the occasion and persevered. You did not let a pandemic alter your path to graduation, and you are to be commended for that.

This is a great moment in your life. You have achieved something that, unfortunately, many people do not. So my sincere advice is that you take every opportunity you have to improve. Improve the quality of life, not only for yourselves but for your families as well. When challenges come, and believe me, there will be many, be strong and persevere. When opportunity knocks, break down the door and make the best of it. Inspire others. Be a leader. Be a life-long learner, and above everything else, be a good person to all.

It has been my privilege to serve you and your families. I hope that I have been worthy of the trust that you placed on me as your principal.

In admiration,

Edwin Reyes

We Can Be Heros.

By Alivia St Germain (12th grade)

I just wanna be a hero
I just wanna change the world

Maybe they wanted to be heroes
And maybe they wanted to change the world

They didn't know that that day would be their last
That life was not theirs to hold anymore
It was their time as much as we hate to admit it Each death had meaning and each one will be taught and learned from Even though we may not see it now
They are changing the world Changing the way we as citizens look at those supposed to protect us
They became heroes and in those fleeting moments where their breaths were stolen and hearts stopped they didn't see it
But I know they see it now
They see that because of their selfless sacrifice one day the world will be a better place Maybe they wanted to be heroes and maybe they wanted to change the world Now they get to be heroes and now they are changing the world.

Is it dangerous or beautiful?

Shunalis Larmie (10th grade)

We all grew up watching Disney movies, fairy tales that we thought were real,
when we thought of love we thought of happy endings,
but little did we know...
They say love is the most beautiful feeling of all,
But love is also one of the most deadliest feelings,
When you first feel love,
you feel like that person is always going to stick by your side,
forever, they say,
When we see that special person,
we get what they call butterflies,
our hearts beating twice as much,
all we can feel is joy,
it's always going to be "us" against the world,
but in reality it was them against each other,
But when things didn't feel right, we brush it off like a slight breeze on a fall day,
when things start getting worse,
maybe we are overreacting,
overthinking,
The next few moments you found yourself trapped inside your soul,
your heart had just been shattered to a million pieces,
the butterflies seem to be gone,
trust issues,
staying up until 4 o'clock wondering what we could've done better, you see the thing is people say the word "love" without knowing the real meaning, but there is no real meaning to love,
we can only describe what we feel,
So you tell me, is it dangerous or beautiful?

It's What You Make It

Blossom Ibudeh (10th grade)

Life is what you make it, so make it fun, make it unique, branch out, do things that inspire you, that shock you even. Put your time and energy on exploring new things, traveling, getting to know the world you are living in. Branch out, stop focusing on the little things and allow your mind to wonder beyond measures. Beyond your thinking capability. Manifestation through any spiritual leader you follow and faith is key. When you know there is good in the world, and you put your mind to seek goodness, you will do anything in your power to receive that. So make life about that. Stop honing in on the bad, stop focusing on what's not going to grow you. Find your true destiny, get to know your true self. Fulfill the many purposes in life you want to fulfil and enjoy every moment of it. Stop this comparison and feeling like you have to be like someone else to feel like you accomplished life. Be yourself, do good in the world, make a lost soul happy, and keep a found soul stable. Do what you know is right to make your life better. Stop worrying about other people's opinions about you, what one thinks about you is none of your business. You cause unnecessary conflict and battles in your life trying to understand what one thinks about you and why one doesn't like you. Let things be for what they are, smile more, put a smile on your face, and know that you are beautiful both inside and out, know that you have something special about you that no one else could ever take away from you. Life comes with lessons but the one lesson you must learn is to make your life the way your heart, your soul wants it to be. Life is what you make it.

The Heart

Faheema Isahawk (10th grade)

Gives the body life,
Yet it feels so much
It fills the mind with such a rush.
It can be broken and built back again.
A gift and a curse,
We Decide what it is Pain nor Beauty;
but everything at once.
A roller coaster
But we have to look closer
Not just love but pain itself.
We can't control this muscle
Yet it's a struggle
It's what makes us human;
The pain and the beauty,
Feeling what can't be controlled...

GIRLS WHO CODE

Most important thing learned...
"... it is easier to get through life when you surround yourself with people who build you up."

Funniest memory...
"... would be the times that I would be late and see students running to class just like me, some falling down the stairs too; it was the greatest."

Won't miss...

"Definitely all of the tests and work."

"Summer packets."

MOST IMPORTANT
THING LEARNED...
"... NOT EVERYONE
IS GOING TO LIKE
YOU AND THAT'S OKAY!"

Learned during quarantine...

"We need to appreciate the little things in life, even if it is as simple as taking the bus with friends."

WILL MISS...
"JUST SEEING
EVERYONE.
EVERYDAY. I WOULD WALK AROUND THE HALLS AND TALK TO ANYBODY..."

Funniest memory...
"The fire drills because of how happy people would get to be out of class even though half the time it would be freezing outside, and we wouldn't be able to grab a sweater or hoodie."

Learned during
quarantine...

"A lot, you have to move on, can't stop now, or ever, we're still here so there's still a chance for this and so much more, proud of who you all were, are,
and are trying to be."

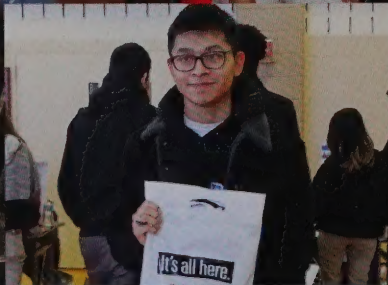

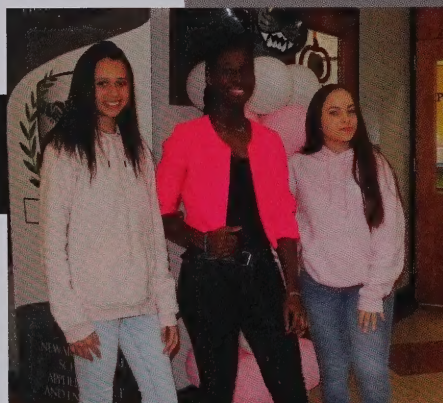

Learned during quarantine...
"I learned how important community and human connection truly is. You don't realize how much people mean to you until they are ripped from your lifewith no warning and absolutely no preparation."

THING LEARNED...
"NOT TO TRY TO FIT IN AND FIND
PEOPLE WHO LOVE
YOU FOR YOU NO MATTER WHAT...
THE RIGHT PERSON AND FRIENDS WILL COME--JUST FOCUS ON YOU."

PANTHER PRIDE

What send-off advice do you have for future Panthers?

Enjoy high school, it will be over before you know it.

Always make time to take care of yourself!

Don't take everything so seriously.

Be responsible, but have fun.

Do Not Procrastinate!!

Be resilient and proactive.

Pace yourself—you're not losing.

Don't eat the donuts from the cafeteria...Just don't!

It will be worth it in the end.

Get to the lunch line as fast as possible!

Stay true to yourself!

Don't let freshmen year fool you—it is one of the most important years of your life!

Expect the unexpected.

Listen to your teachers—they know what they are talking about.

What will you miss most about high school?

EVERYTHING!

All the fun times at the lunch table playing games.

The Teachers

Joking around with my friends in the cafeteria and halls.

How simple life was in high school.

I miss rushing to my locker just to spend 4 hours at the bus stop with my friends.

Definitely Biomed and art club.

The Robotics Team

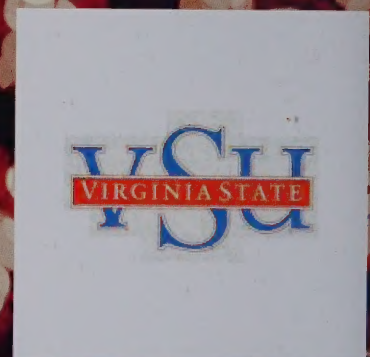

The student body overall and the bonds I made.

The atmosphere.

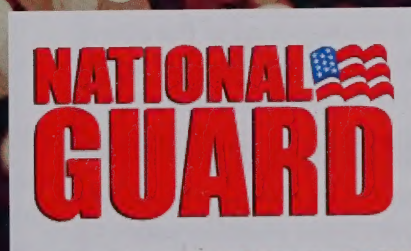

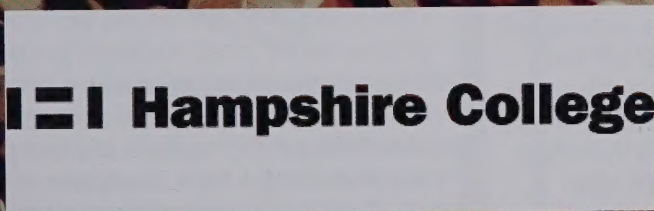

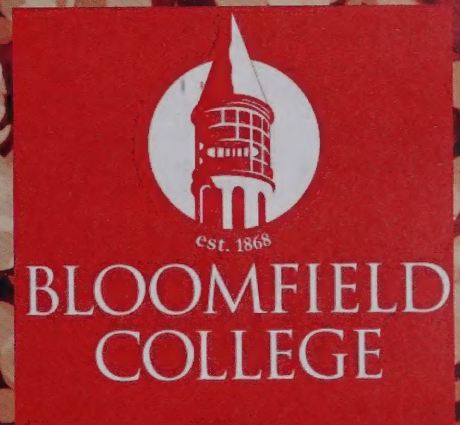

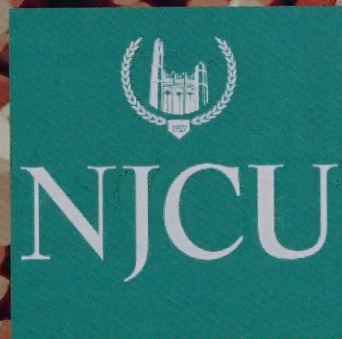

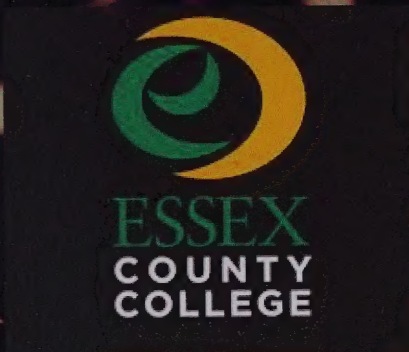

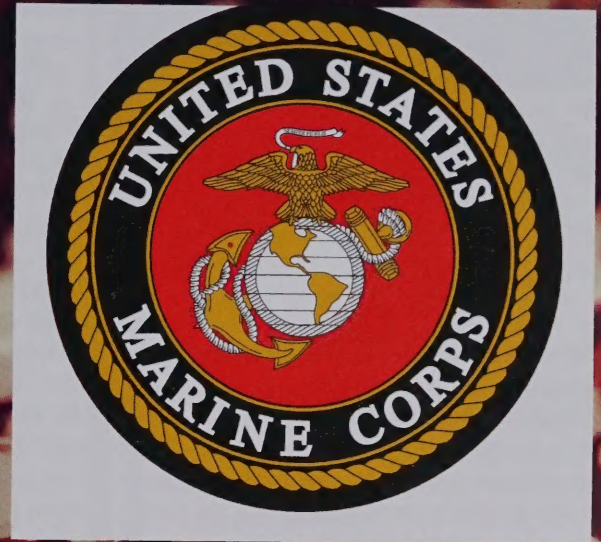

The hangouts after each class or afterschool.

The laughs you have with teachers and classmates.

Advice to Our Students

Mr Iovino: There will come a point in your life, sometime in college, maybe after, where you realise that most of you thought you knew about life, was wrong...IT'S OKAY!! It just means you learned more about about yourself, the world etc., than you knew before. Congratulations!

Ms Nunez: Meet as many people as you can, study hard, take in all the experiences and moments and remember your core values wherever you go and with whatever you do. Graduating HS is just the beginning of your journey into adulthood. Have fun making memories and don't be too hard on yourself when you make mistakes. You have a home at THS with people that can't wait to see you succeed!

Ms Valente: No matter where the road takes you in life, always remain true to yourself and true to what you believe in.

Ms Rivera: Congratulations graduates! Wishing you all the very best for the future may you all be successful and happy in life.

Set your goals high and always dream big.

A shout out to Jahad and Kissenia. I am so proud of you guys, YOU DID IT!

Congrats to the Class of 2021!!!!!!
Felicidades !!!!!!!

Ms. Moulton: Life is a whole tangle of good things and bad things. So when you find something that is good, or exciting, or beautiful, enjoy it as much as you can, and remember it for as long as you can.

Ms Kukreja: Congrats to the graduating class of 2021! This year has been really different from all of our previous years. However, even though we have been virtual, you made it to the end of this unique year!

As your big day approaches, I want you all to remember one thing. Sometimes it is okay if you do not know right away what you want to do for the rest of your life in terms of your major or your career. You are going to figure it out! There are times when I did not know either, but you have to believe that you will find something you are passionate about. Take the opportunities that you get, and one day you will start doing something that you love. You will be excited to learn and to grow in that field. That day might not be today, but it will happen if you continue to believe in yourself and your dreams.

Good luck with everything and congrats!

P.S: Shoutout to the seniors in Drama class this year! You all worked so hard on a very difficult task we call acting. You wrote scripts, you performed monologues, and you participated in all of our unique and fun acting exercises.

And you did it virtually!! I will always remember all of the effort you put into those final scripts. Thank you for being so awesome this year!

Mr. Kleinberg: If there is anything I've learned over these past few years that I could share with you, it is to value time over anything. You can replace everything else, but you can't replace time.

Ms Stefanese: You are strong enough to overcome any obstacle that comes your way.

Virus

"Mother Nature is a serial killer. No one's better-more creative. Like all serial killers, she can't help but the urge to get caught. What good are all those brilliant crimes if nobody takes the credit? So she leaves crumbs. Now, the hard part is, and why you spend decades in school, is seeing the crumbs for the clues they are. Sometimes the thing you thought to be the most brutal aspect of the virus actually turns out to be the chink in its armor. She loves disguising her weaknesses as strengths." World War Z

To my seniors as you enter the healthcare field
Look for the crumbs.....
Find the chink in the armor.....
Overcome anything that gets in your way....

Best of luck in all your endeavors

K-Savage: Dishonest work now creates a lot of unplanned work and difficulties in the future.
(Ms. Kniaziewicz)

Ms Flagg: Be mindful of whatever you do. Do not have any regrets in life. Know that you are Blessed and capable of moving mountains. Always have an attitude of gratitude. Do not cheat nor mistreat yourself. Never make excuses for who you are. You are an awesome, wonderful, and unique individual. Always, without a doubt, love yourself. I will pray for you always, and wish you nothing but the best.

Ms Perry: To my 2019-2020 students: it still hurts that our year was unceremoniously cut short last spring. I missed you all so much this year! To all seniors: I wish you the best of luck in your future, and hope it brings much success as you graduate from one of the toughest years of your lives. You are all amazing, you stuck through it, and there is so much that lies ahead for all of you! Keep your head up, keep working hard, and congratulations!

Ms Carrano: Relax, you don't need to have your whole life planned out right now. You're young, be flexible, be present, and enjoy your life. Stay connected and grounded with your roots and remember to stand tall and bend, but never break! Now go out there and make YOUR mark on this crazy world!!
Congratulations Class of 2021!!!

Thornton Melon: Always look out for number one, but keep an eye out for number two.

Mr Iovino: "Remembering where you came from" does not mean... "Never leave home." Get out, enjoy the world while you are young and have the freedom to do so...

Ms. You: Dear Seniors, Congrats and blessings on your new start! "Embrace each challenge in your life as an opportunity for self-transformation."
— Bernie Siegel

To My Darling Seniors,

Thank you for always finding my keys and cell phone the fifty times a day I would misplace them. Thank you for always being attentive and thinking I was speaking to you when I would talk to myself out loud, and then entertaining my craziness. Thank you for always pointing out my math errors then keeping those stickers I would give you for doing so. Seeing them on your school supplies, phone cases, strategically placed on school doorways or lockers, and even when they'd fall off of your shirts and end up on the concrete outside in front of the school or on the hallway floors, seeing them always made me smile. Thank you for never asking me if I am pregnant when I got large. For laughing with me when I began having a hard time maneuvering in my small classroom and would walk into desks or trip over chair legs either screaming I forgot how big I've gotten or "there's a desk there" while nonchalantly walking away as if it didn't happen. Thank you to all the young men that caught me when I did trip over chairs.

My face also thanks you. Thank you for always being there to help me with absolutely anything I asked for, ESPECIALLY killing roaches. Thank you for the years of laughter you've all brought me, like when I taught about exterior angles in Geometry and Kevin S. confused an "exoskeleton" with "respiratory system" to associate exterior angles with, Mc'Scuse Me, "clown", my 10th year teaching photo shoot, and so so many more. Thank you for all the kindness you have all shown me. I will sorely miss our Christmas gift exchanges, tissue body guards, late night conversations, "You think they tell me things?" conversations, and math meme exchanges. Jahwayne, for the love of all things holy, please stop dividing by zero?!

You may not know this but you are the first class that I have ever taught for 3 consecutive years. The number 21 is also "my number" because my Pop's (grandfather's) birthday was 9/21, and he was the love of my life. So you being The Class of '21 holds a much deeper meaning to me. I hold you all near and dear to my heart.

All of you give my life meaning and purpose. If I could give you all any gift in the entire world, it would be for you to have the capacity to see yourselves through my eyes.

Remember, a closed mouth doesn't get fed! Be kind to yourselves. The relationship you have with yourself will be the longest relationship you have in life! Also, 90% of the time, your first response is the correct one!

Congratulations!

With Love,
Ms. Kritsky aka "The O-K" in your way....

Ms. Valerius: Set short and long-term goals—otherwise you are wasting time—and years. Set a few 5-year goals. Then ask yourself where you want to be when you are 30 years old. Be intentional. "Without dreams and goals there is no living, only merely existing, and that is not why we are here." --Mark Twain

Congrats to the 2021 GRADUATES!!

I am so proud of ALL of you and the hurdles you have overcome these last four years, but more specifically, the last two years... you made it!! If you were able to survive 2020-2021, you can do anything. I wish you all the best of luck in all that you do. You are all destined to do amazing things, and I can NOT wait to witness it all!

I will leave you with a few LIFE rules:

1. Remember that all people are searching for the same two things: love and acceptance. Don't get mad at them for doing whatever they can to get them.
2. If something feels wrong, it isn't USUALLY wrong. It is ALWAYS wrong. Trust your instincts. You are smarter than you think.
3. Do nice things for the sake of doing them, not to get something in return. If you wait for people to be as nice as you, as caring as you or as compassionate as you, you will wait forever.
4. EXPECT: It will rain on the day you plan a big outdoor party. You will get sick on the day of a big date, and you will get dumped at least once in your lifetime.
- AND 5. Stand up for yourself. Always choose to fight for what you believe in, and always believe in yourself.

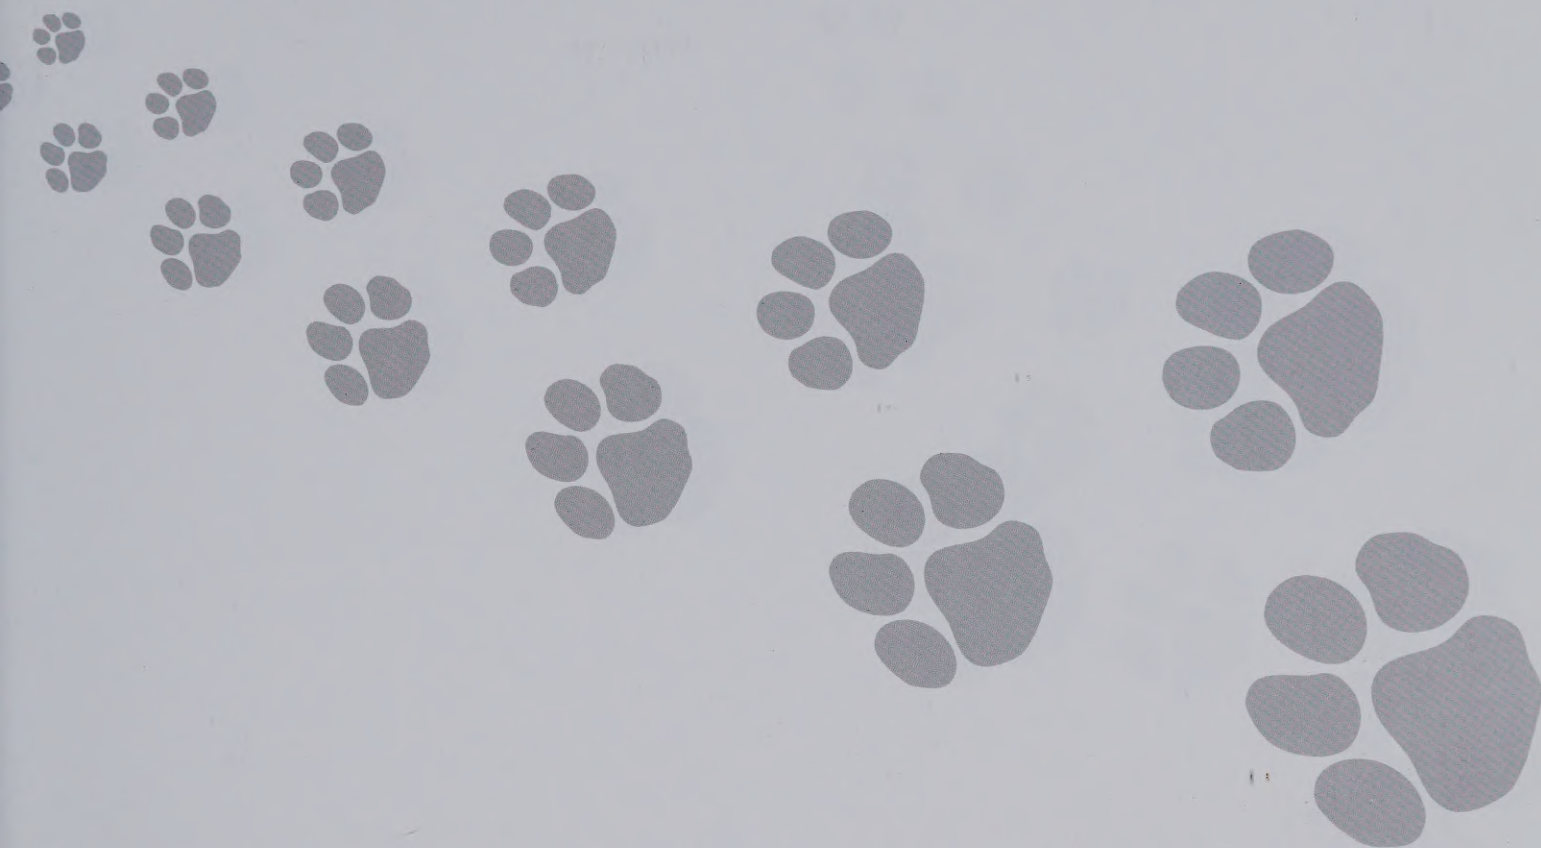

The Class of 2021 ROCKS! I'm going to miss you all, but I know you are going onto bigger and better things!... just don't forget about me! =)

Mrs. Paruta<3

Mr. Bradshaw: You are in charge now. Your choices create your outcomes. If you truly understand this statement, you will always be in control. If you do not, you will rely on blame. Choose. Embrace this challenge we call life. It is worth it.

Ms Ballester: Keep Pushing, Keep Pressing, and if you Stumble, just make it part of the Dance!!
